GOD IS GOOD, WEEKEND #41

Weekend #41 wrapped up with the women's weekend in early November. Because of the dedication and willingness of all team members 15 women and 22 men were welcomed with open arms into our Abundant Life Tres Dias community. What an exciting thing to see! We wanted to give a big shout out to our phenomenal rector/rectora and head chas: Rector-Kevin Batz with head cha-Todd Hunt and Rectora-Pat Oberst with head cha- Kathy McGregor. Thank you so much for stepping into these very important calls, may God bless you and all the team for all the effort, love and prayer you poured into the weekend and the pescadores. We love you all dearly!

"...Well done, good and faithful servant..."

Matthew 25:23

PAY IT FORWARD

The holidays are coming upon us! When considering what gifts you will be giving or charities you may want to help out this holiday season, please consider donating to our Pay It Forward Campaign. We would be so blessed if you would consider a reoccurring monthly donation. Thank you to all that have signed up for the reoccurring monthly donations. As a reminder the process behind The Pay It Forward Campaign is; participants on a particular weekend don't pay a fee to attend. At the end of the weekend (and with follow up shortly thereafter), they are invited to pay what they are able so the next group of weekend participants can benefit from the weekend as they have been so richly blessed. It only takes $15 a month to completely fund a candidate to attend the weekend at no charge. There is a donation button on the ALTD website or you can text ALTD to 1-206-859-9405 to donate and set up your giving account. Thank you and God Bless all that haven given thus far. If you can't give at this time please consider praying for the campaign.

REUNION GROUP SPOTLIGHT-His Queen Warriors

This reunion group consists of the following members: Adell Frye, Alison Soto, Jenny Mac Intyre, Dee Laughlin. They gather together on Wednesdays from 9am-11am. During their time together these ladies seek the Lord (for neon signs) from His Word, worship, pray, laugh and cry. The group is open to whatever the Lord has for us. They would prefer to have women in the group who will have a consistent commitment to attendance. The ladies understand that things come up but they themselves will make it work so they can meet weekly, it is a deep priority for these women and helps to strengthen their bond and also their walk with Christ. Sometimes the hours get shifted. Sometimes the day gets changed. They try to keep their time sacred so that they are accountable to the Lord and each other. Here is an excerpt from one of the members "For me, Adell, I've always longed for a group of like minded women, who wanted to seek the Lord's will for their lives, in a non-judgmental, loving setting. The group evolved over a 2.5-3 year process. For me, over 10 years in The Waiting. I have attempted to have a group like this for years. The Lord truly orchestrated this group. Jenny and Alison started a Wednesday morning group that they thought was to be a Beautifully Broken Circle Group. I saw the post on Facebook and told the Lord "If it is meant for me to go, then make it under 30 minutes away." I put it in the gps and it was 29 minutes. God is so funny. Alison and Dee met in Israel through Journey Church in October of 2019. Dee and I were in a Monday night women's bible study and I had asked her several times to attend a Tres Dias weekend, but she was never able to. One day, after Israel, Alison went into a door at church that she rarely enters through. She saw Dee and her daughter across the foyer and they began talking. When Alison was ready to leave, her daughter hit her head pretty hard. At that time, the Lord prompted Alison to ask Dee to attend a Tres Dias weekend. She said yes! Then, she was seated at the table with Jenny as one of the table leaders. During the agape meal, it was realized that Dee is Jenny's high schoolers bus driver. What a small world! Two weeks later, Dee joined our reunion group. And as we are typing this up, we are on our first of many Queen Warrior weekends! "

Victory Secuela

On November 22, 2019 the community came together at Trinity Church in Genoa City, WI to celebrate one of our Victory Secuela's. It was so amazing to see the 70+ attendees come together for some great food, wonderful fellowship, the welcoming of our new members, a 4th day talk and a message. There were 12 new members present, it was a delight to get to see them blending right in to the ALTD family. Chris Duffy gave an awesome 4th day talk where he shared with us how his prayer life has grown during his time in our community. Yolanda Turner-Smith, one of your so greatly appreciated spiritual directors, shared a message about making sure we take time out this holiday season to just sit with our Lord and Savior. Of course, we have to give a big shout out to Santa AKA Ricoh Oberst for paying us a visit! If you have not attended a secuela in awhile, we ask that you consider coming to one of our upcoming ones, it so amazing when we all can come together outside of the weekends and be able to spend quality time with each other and our God.
